John Smoltz is currently a sportscaster for WTBS and TNT but is best known for his prolific career of more than two decades with the Atlanta Braves. In 2002 he became only the second pitcher in history to have had both a 20-win season and a 50-save season. Smoltz is the only pitcher in major league history to top both 200 wins and 150 saves, and became the 16th member of the 3,000 career strikeout club on April 22, 2008.

During his illustrious career, Smoltz was an All-Star eight times and was a member of the 1995 World Series team. He captured the 1996 National League Cy Young Award and was the 1992 NLCS most valuable player. Smoltz was the 2002 NL Rolaids Relief Man of the Year and in 2005 he received the Roberto Clemente Award and the Lou Gehrig Memorial Award. Two years later, brought home the Branch Rickey Award.

Enjoy an evening with a true legend on January 27, 2012. It will be a night to remember.
